

Personal Protective Equipment - E-Learning

Course Aim

This online training aims to give delegates an understanding of their duties under the Personal Protective Equipment at Work Regulations 1992.

Additionally, it covers the types of PPE that might apply to you, as well as the signs that might be in a workplace showing the mandatory PPE and any warning signs.

The HSE estimates that an estimated 9,000 PPE-related incidents occur each year. It is clear that employees who require PPE to safely complete their work understand the importance of wearing the PPE, how to wear it correctly, and how to maintain it.
